September 16th, 2010 8:30am-11:30am & 12:30pm-3:30pm

Location: Alamance-Burlington School System Central Office Auditorium. 1712 Vaughn Rd. Burlington, NC 27217. (336)-570-6060

Part I: 8:30-11:30 ASCA Model in Baby Steps

3.0 Contact Hours

The ASCA National Model is an essential framework for showing stakeholders what your counseling program is and how what you do impacts student academic success. It is a great tool to use for self-advocacy and for delivering the best services to each and every student. Attempting to implement the national model alone can sometimes feel like an overwhelming process. Rebecca Atkins and Jessica Thompson are school counselors who have implemented the National Model at Millbrook Elementary School in Wake County, NC. They will help us develop an action plan, a management agreement, calendar, advisory council and a plan to gather results.

11:30-12:30 LUNCH ON YOUR OWN

*Please plan to pack snacks and a lunch, or plan to eat at local restaurants during lunch hour. Food and drink (other than water) should be eaten outside of the auditorium.

Part II: 12:30-3:30 Counselors Together: Elementary, Middle and High School Level Sharing Sessions

3.0 Contact Hours

Our Elementary and Middle School Regional Chairs will facilitate a networking opportunity and a best practice sharing session. Be sure to bring your great ideas that have worked, things you would like help with, and ideas for future regional interest level counselor activities.

Elementary Chair: Jennifer Oakley, Woodland Elementary School in Person County, NC.

Middle Chair: Heidi Schuldt, Chatham Middle School in Chatham County, NC.

High School Chair: You? Our region is still searching for a High School level committee chair. Are you that awesome person? Please contact me if you would like to volunteer.
